

DEAN TILBERG TO BE HONORED OVER WEEKEND

Dr. Wilbur E. Tilberg, now in his 29th and final year as dean of Gettysburg College, will be honored this weekend by the Gettysburg student body. According to an announcement from the College Student Senate and the Booster Club, the groups in charge of the weekend activities, Dean Tilberg will be honored before, during and after the traditional football game between Gettysburg and Western Maryland.

The festivities will begin Friday night, when the student body, under the direction of the Booster Club, will hold a pep-rally in front of the dean's home on West Lincoln Ave. At 12:45 p.m. Saturday, there will be a parade through town featuring the Gettysburg and Western Maryland bands and the air and ground ROTC Drill Teams in honor of the dean. He will then be brought onto the football field before the kickoff, and he and Mrs. Tilberg will sit with President and Mrs. Walter C. Langsam on the 50-yard line.

At halftime, following a band and drill-team performance, the dean will be presented with a scroll containing the signatures of members of the Gettysburg student body. The presentation will be made by James Lau, president of the Student Senate. Following the football game, the band and drill teams will lead the crowd to the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity House where a reception will be held in the dean's honor. Dean and Mrs. Tilberg will be honored Saturday night at the Dorn Dance and again during church services Sunday morning at Christ Lutheran Church.

COMMISSIONERS FACE PROBLEM IN OLD BRIDGES

There may come a day when only a few covered wooden bridges remain in the county—carefully set aside off the roads, blocked to automobile traffic, and carefully painted and preserved as a memento to a historic past.

At least that was the talk among the Adams County Commissioners this morning as they contemplated replacing or repairing another wooden bridge through which a truck had dropped.

The bridge under consideration this morning was not a covered bridge, but was of wooden construction, and located about 100 yards off the Harrisburg Rd. at Twin Bridges, over Kennedy's run. A truck dropped through the floor of the bridge Tuesday and the commissioners were facing the problem of either replacing the flooring or replacing the 20-foot bridge structure itself.

Not Fit For Modern Traffic
The bridge, No. 107 on the county list, had been refloored about five years ago, after a hay baler had dropped through its timber floor.

With that experience and with the commissioners about to receive bids for replacement of a Latimore Twp. bridge which dropped a huge gas tank truck into the creek, the commissioners spent some time this morning in serious consideration of (Continued on Page 5)

Urges Final Effort In Chest Campaign

Fund Chairman John A. MacPhail urged all solicitors to put forth a final effort as the Community Chest drive swings into its final five days. The last figure reported was $12,100 collected, of the $17,000 goal, MacPhail estimated that about 80 per cent of the residential area of Gettysburg had been covered, and about 80 per cent of the solicitors had reported. The drive ends on Monday.

Former Foreign Minister Of Iran Dies Before Firing Squad

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Former Foreign Minister Hossein Fatemi, firebrand of Mohammed Mossadegh's government, died before an army firing squad at dawn today for his part in the 1953 plot to unseat the Shah.

Fatemi was convicted and sentenced by a military court a month ago. An appeal to Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi failed.

The secret execution at Ghasr Barracks came as a surprise. Army sources said last weekend it would be delayed indefinitely because Fatemi was seriously ill.

Tehran's military governor, Gen. Teimour Bakhtiar, said Fatemi walked without trembling to the stake, where he was blindfolded and bound. He said "May God protect you" just before four volleys from the "our-man firing squad" crumpled him.

Another witness said Fatemi at the stake shouted, "This is Brit-

Attention! List All Games

One of the games, Auburn vs. Georgia, listed in Tuesday's football contest of The Gettysburg Times, appears twice and in order to avoid confusion it will be recognized as two separate games in selections submitted by contestants.

For instance, if the winner is correctly chosen on both listings the contestant will receive credit for two correct choices. If the game is selected with two different winners, one will obviously be wrong in the final tabulations.

Prior to joining American Can Company's staff, Mr. Deas was a specialist in municipal management, a member of a national investment banking concern and an assistant to Chief Justice Earl Warren when he was governor of California. SKATING RINK WILL BE BUILT AT REC FIELD

Plans were completed for the construction of an ice-skating pond for use this winter, weather permitting, at the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Gettysburg Recreation Association Tuesday night at the Engine House.

Present plans call for the grading of a section of the recreation field, off Breckenridge St., and filling it with four to six inches of water. It was reported that the Fire Department has promised its cooperation in pumping the water. Donald Peters is chairman of the committee in charge.

Fred Haehnle, who has been supervising the Saturday night teen-age dances at the high school, reported that an average of 150 attend each weekly affair, and participate freely in the dancing and table tennis. A Thanksgiving dance will be held by the group, in cooperation with the Student Council.

Plans were also completed for the setting up of volleyball play for post-adolescents. Sessions will be held once or twice a week, at the high school gym, beginning early in December. Those interested are asked to notify Roger Herr, at the Gettysburg National Bank, or the board president, Guile W. Lefever, at the high school.

Renew Cage League

The Community Basketball League will be re-activated after Christmas, Herr said, and Adult Education courses will also begin then. Herr reported that seventeen had already signed up for the art class, and urged those interested in any courses to notify him or Lefever. Gettysburg residents will be charged a $2 deposit, and non-residents, a $5 tuition fee.

Mrs. Henrietta Blocher, president of the association's Advisory Board, commended the plan to construct an ice skating pond, and suggested that further expansion of tennis facilities be held off until next year, when the group can better estimate the normal demand for courts.

Progress was also announced on the construction of an outdoor basketball court. The stone base has already been laid, and the asphalt surface is expected to be applied next spring. Board Secretary Mahlon P. Hartzell is chairman of the committee in charge of this project.

SAY TURKEY AND CHICKEN PRICE OUTLOOK POOR

Poultry growers from five counties were told Tuesday night that this year, as far as prices are concerned, is going to be a good year for the consumer.

Carl Harrison, Johnstown, manager of the Penn's Best Turkey Cooperative, flatly told the 50 growers from Adams, Cumberland, York, Franklin and Schuylkill Counties gathered at the Court House here for a joint poultry meeting: "Turkey this year is going to be the consumers' best buy in years. Prices are down and there are plenty of turkeys."

All surveys show turkey population on eastern U. S. farms has decreased, the turkeys have been moved to the market, but an over supply of turkeys on the west coast is depressing the price, Harrison said.

Urge Sales Promotion

At present, he said, farmers are securing about 31 to 35 cents a pound, live weight, about 15 cents more than that per pound for dressed turkeys. There are the usual (Continued on Page 5)

Joyce Sheaffer At 15 Breaths Normally For 1st Time In Life

Joyce Frances Sheaffer, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sheaffer, Table Rock, is not yet quite sure that a normal breathing is what she had hoped it would be.

Miss Sheaffer, a sophomore at Biglerville High School, drew a normal breath for the first time in her life just a few weeks ago and she is finding that the normal method involves a little practice after 15 years of breathing through an opening in her throat.

Joyce's difficulties began at birth. The gasping wheeze with which she greeted life led physicians at first to fear that she had pneumonia. Within a few hours it was determined that it was not pneumonia, but a restriction of the windpipe that was causing the infant so much difficulty.

Rushed to the Warner Hospital February 14, 1939, when a day old she had an incision made in her throat. A tube was inserted and since that time she has breathed through the incision.

That led to problems to which there was no answer until last month, but it did not prevent Joyce from taking part in any activities she desired, with but few exceptions.

INDICT HANKEY AS GRAND JURY FINISHES WORK

The number of criminal cases to be tried in Adams County court this month was brought to 12 Tuesday afternoon when the grand jury completed two days work by handing up trial bills on the last three of the 12 cases before it.

All of the defendants whose cases were brought before the grand jury, with one exception, found themselves held for trial.

The exception was Walter Eugene Harman, York Springs R. 1, who had been arrested with Milton Ray Woodward and Walter Richard Clapper, both of Hanover, on charges of burglary and larceny. The grand jury indicted both Woodward and Clapper on the five counts against them, but found "not a true bill" against Harman on the five charges.

Hankey Indicted

M. Floyd Hankey, Gettysburg R. 2, S. Washington St. grocer, was indicted on charges of involuntary manslaughter and assault and battery by auto. The charges had been brought against Hankey following an accident August 8 near Bonneauville in which Mrs. Ella B. Rorer, Hanover R. 1, riding a motorcycle, was fatally injured when the motorcycle struck the front of Hankey's car as he was attempting a left turn across the highway. The involuntary manslaughter is based on the fatality; the assault and battery charge was brought in connection with the injuries received by Durward E. Rorer, Mrs. Rorer's husband, who was also operating a motorcycle and who upset off the road in avoiding the Hankey car.

The third indictment was against Roland L. Webster, Harrisburg, Va., and Orrtanna R. 1, charged with removing property under levy. Friday the court will convene to hear desertion and non-support cases and for other business. Monday morning trial by the petit jurors begins.

FIND BODY OF MURDERED GIRL

BALTIMORE (AP)—Police conducted an intensive search near the home of a murdered 14-year-old high school girl today after the discovery of blood stains that may point to a possible site for the brutal slaying.

The seminecrotic, battered body of Carolyn Loretta Wasilewski, better known to her friends as Carolyn Wells, was found yesterday on a railroad track in the northwest suburb of Mount Washington.

Police concluded that the murder had occurred elsewhere and the small blonde girl had been thrown from a bridge overhead or dragged down a bank to the track. An autopsy showed the girl had been dead since Monday night. She had suffered a fractured skull and jaw and the ring finger of her right hand had been broken. There was no evidence of a violent sexual attack.

Near the Wells home, police found a bloodstained trail that ran from a vacant lot to an embankment on the opposite side of the street.

Nearby were a gold pendant earring, two sides of a matching locket, a locket chain, an aluminum hair curler and a pair of blue and white moccasin-type shoes.

PLANNING FOR BIGGEST C-D TEST ON NOV. 21

Sirens, bells and whistles will sound throughout Adams County, traffic will come to a halt and pedestrians take cover sometime between the hours of 6 a.m. and 6 p.m. Sunday, November 21, William G. Weaver, county director of Civil Defense, announced today.

The air raid alert will last only "three to five minutes and as a result no one will be seriously inconvenienced," Weaver said.

By immediately after the air raid alert, the county's Civil Defense workers will go into action with the largest drill in the county's history.

Test For Several Hundred Several hundred men and women will be involved in the drill, as well as a score of pieces of fire apparatus and other equipment, and nearly all fire police in the county will be pressed into service. First aid and mass care center officials will take part in the test designed to determine the readiness of every phase of the county's CD organization.

And, in keeping with what would be the real procedure in the event of an actual disaster, the public will be prevented from reaching the scene of the "disaster" to be simulated in the county and which will be the basis for all of the activities of the CD corps.

County Civil Defense Fire Chief John Murren, Hanover R. 4, said today the disaster preparedness test will be "conducted as much like the real thing as possible."

The test will involve fire companies setting up to fight fires and actually throwing water, ambulances carrying persons simulating casualties, first aid teams from Adams County Red Cross carrying out first aid practices on the casualties and the county's mass care centers receiving persons during the test.

Ask Wider Cooperation Murren and Weaver said today: "Each test shows up some place in which we have slipped and we expect there will be some confusion in connection with this test. But we have high hopes that the workers will do a good job—as they have in the past."

Weaver asked increased participation by home owners in drawing blinds and curtains at their homes when the public air raid alarm is sounded on November 21. "We all want to become accustomed to that, we want it to become a habit in every home. When a blast occurs, as it might at any time, there will be a lot of flying glass even if the bombs drop up to 150 miles from here. The blinds and curtains will help stop that flying glass. With the hydrogen bomb, the best estimates today are that damage will occur up to 150 miles from the center of the explosion. The force of the explosion blasting out can break windows at great distances from the actual explosion itself—and a lot of people could get badly cut, even though no other damage occurred within miles."

Weaver also reminded that the "red alert" signal is a warbling sound on fire sirens, or a series of short blasts on whistles for one to three minutes. The all clear is three one-minute blasts divided by two minutes of silence between blasts. Traffic and pedestrians may move at the first sound of the "all clear."

The motoramic Chevrolet for '55

Great new

8

Two new 6's

It's the valve-in-head V8 as only the valve-in-head leader can build it!

You'd expect Chevrolet to out-V8 the field—and it has! Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8" puts a brand-new kind of excitement under your foot. The excitement of 162 horsepower! The excitement of an 8 to 1 ultra-high compression ratio that squeezes more pure fun out of a gallon of gas than you ever dreamed possible! The new "Turbo-Fire V8" is so efficient that it requires only four quarts of oil instead of the usual five or more. And it has the shortest piston stroke in the low-price field, for longer engine life. But we can't even begin to give you the whole story here. Come in and drive the new "Turbo-Fire V8!"

With enough new advances to fill a book!

Chevrolet offers two new highstepping sixes for 1955! There's the new "Blue-Flame 136" (teamed with Powerglide as an extra-cost option) and the new "Blue-Flame 125." Both bring you new, higher-rated power—the zippy, thrifty high-compression kind. Both have new, more efficient cooling and lubrication systems . . . new engine mounts that result in almost unbelievable smoothness. And, like the new "Turbo-Fire V8," both are sparked by a new 12-volt electrical system for finer performance and faster cold-weather starting. They're the liveliest, smoothest sixes Chevrolet ever put into a passenger car!

The Bel Air 2-Door Sedan—one of 14 new Fisher Body beauties in three new series.

More than a new car . . . a new CONCEPT of low-cost motoring (and much too good to miss driving!)

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Local Man Is Married Today:
Elemental A. Redding, son of Mrs.
Margaret Redding, East Middle Street, and Miss Margaret Irene Baker, of near Emmitsburg, were married today (November 4) at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Emmitsburg, at a nuptial mass celebrated by the Rev.
P. J. Conroy.

Miss Mary B. Rosensteel, of Philadelphia, was the bridesmaid, and Dr.
Mark Redding, of Philadelphia, was the best man. After the wedding breakfast the newlyweds left for an extended motor trip through the middle west and Canada.

Shippensburg Is Walloped By High School: Displaying an almost irresistible offense, Gettysburg high school's football team won its fifth victory of the season on Saturday, downing Shippensburg High, at Shippensburg, 50-0.

For the second straight game, the Bullets pushed over eight touchdowns. Baldy Weikert and Denny Fiscel each contributed three scores while Smith and Bushman also added extra points.

Coach Martin's team played almost flawless ball and easily outclassed Shippensburg.

Gettysburg Captures Dickinson
Game 6-0 On Wet Soggy Field:
"Streak" McMillan's fifty yard dash for a touchdown in the first few minutes of play in the 1929 class of the time honored rivals, Gettysburg and Dickinson, was the only scoring play in Saturday's at Biddle Field, Carlisle.

County Hurler Weds Saturday:
The wedding of Miss Helen Goodlander, Harrisburg, daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. O. C. Goodlander, of Watsonstown, and Maurice E. Bream, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Bream, Bendersville, took place last Saturday afternoon at Stevens Memorial Methodist Church, Harrisburg. Mr.
Bream, a pitcher on the Jersey City baseball team in the International League, formerly pitched in the Adams County Baseball league.

tion Victories: Polling a large vote

Democratic majorities in outlying boroughs and townships R. Blaine Kitzmiller, Republican, of Gettysburg, was elected treasurer of Adams County in Tuesday's election.

Burgess C. A. Heiges, Republican, defeated his Democratic opponent, John Kimpie, by 437 votes according to the unofficial count. Running for his third four-year term as tax collector of Gettysburg William Oc-den, Republican, defeated Milton R.
Rommel, Democrat, by 462 votes.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Chambersburg St., Republican candidate for school director of Gettysburg, had a majority of 612 votes, the largest recorded by a candidate for town or county office in Tuesday's balloting.

"Jimmie" Walker Sweeps To May-orship Victory: New York, (AP) — James J. Walker, New York's popular mayor, was swept into again with a large vote in Tuesday's election. He had a majority of more than a half a million votes over Fiorello H. LaGuardia, Republican-fusion candidate.

School Bond Issues Split: Voters in Franklin township approved a $20,000 bond issue but in Cumberland township a $35,000 bond issue, both for school purposes, were rejected in Tuesday's general election.

Connly Bank Robbed Today: A lone bandit entered the Abbotstown State Bank, on the square at Abbotstown, at 2:15 o'clock this afternoon (November 6), forced the cashiers, Wilson Bream, into the vault at the point of a revolver, pushed the door, scooped up all currency and change in sight and escaped in an automobile.

The holdup man was frightened away when he saw Raymond Stock of Abbotstown approaching the bank.

A checkup showed approximately $1,100 was missing from the bank.

WEATHERED
The best lumber is that which has been weathered and seasoned.
The builder likes to work with this kind. Its at its best then.
Many a man is referred to as "weather beaten," meaning that he has faced the storms of life, its setbacks and discouragements,
yet without giving in to them.

The old sailors of the sea,
including the fisher folks, show in their faces what the weather contributed, for there you will see the silent story of their lives, tinted with tan and lines—healthily weathered. I have known many of these rugged individuals of the sea and with great admiration. They reflect the rocky shore to which they return, and on which they have long since built their modest homes.

A friend of mine was telling me, recently, about his home which was more than a hundred and fifty years old. He showed me the well with the bucket that brought the water up, and all was enclosed off the kitchen. Then he showed me the broad boards of the flooring and other things about his home that had lasted so long and so securely. It had well weathered the years, and my friend took great pride in his ownership.

We live in a very restless age.
People are gadget crazy. No sooner do they buy a thing, like an automobile, than they want to trade it in for some small addition added to the latest model.
They don't want that car to get too well weathered! Our early fathers were not bothered with such things. We look into their faces, preserved in our histories, and we can't help but admire their weathered looks.

I write upon a desk that had long been weathered before it came to me, and a hundred years from now it will hardly show a trace of its age, it was so weathered when it was first built by someone who put himself into it.
How important it is to take time to mature!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Thank You, Please, I'm Sorry."

SIX HONORARY N.Y. MAYORS TO AID NEEDY MAN

NEW YORK (AP) — Six of New York's honorary locality mayors, led by "Mayor" Sammy Fuchs of the Bowery, will be in Allentown, Pa., tomorrow to help a widower compelled to place 10 of his 12 children in an orphanage.

The mayors yesterday named Frank Hudac, 44, cement mill worker, as their "most needy person of the month." They expect to outfit the 12 children with clothes and help Hudac "get a new start on life."

The locality mayors hold "office" through the esteem of their neighbors. They act as unofficial arbiters of local disputes. Fuchs said the mayors learned of Hudac's plight through an Associated Press story from Allentown Monday.

WEST VIRGINIA

OPENS TURNPIKE

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—West Virginia Turnpike officials waited with fingers crossed today to see if their 88-mile ribbon of concrete, criticized as beginning nowhere and ending nowhere, will pay for itself.

The 133 million dollar turnpike linking the state capital with Princeton, a community only a few miles from the Virginia border, was dedicated on Monday.

Monday night, Mrs. William C. Mar-land, wife of the state's youthful governor, pushed a button signaling the start of toll charges for the first time along its 88-mile length.

Admittedly anxious to extend the highway north from the point where it deadends in a field just east of here, Gov. Marland, at a dedication dinner, envisioned "a turnpike running north and south through this state."

He said that West Virginia's economic development is retarded in many places because of inadequate highways.

The state Turnpike Commission has set a maximum toll rate of $1.65 for automobiles and $6.50 for trucks on the turnpike and hopes business will be good enough to meet the $15,000-per-day cost of maintenance and amortization.

Court Refuses To

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—A state request for a preliminary injunc-

National Assn. for the Advance-

At the same time on Monday he refused an NAAWP plea for immediate dismissal of the whole case.

State Atty. Gen. H. Albert
Young has asked the Court of Chancery to revoke the organization's charter on the ground that it failed to uphold the Delaware con-and Negro students.

Gloomy Basketball Outlook For Warriors; Open 21-Game Schedule With Owls Dec. 7

A gloomy outlook for the coming basketball season confronts Coach George Forney at Gettysburg High School where drills were started this week in preparation for the stiff 21-game schedule.

Only one letterman remains from last year, Jeff Langsam, a senior, and he may be forced to abandon the sport because of a physical ailment.

Due to painting of the gymnasium this week, the Warriors held Monday's drill in the old gymnasium and worked outdoors Tuesday. The squad will probably be able to return to the regular gym today or Thursday.

COEDS WIN TWO HOCKEY GAMES

The Gettysburg College Field Hockey teams wound up their regular schedule by taking a pair of games from Penn Hall, Chambersburg, here Tuesday.

Grace Kenney's varsity won its contest 2-0 with Louise Meyer scoring in the first half and Alice Davis tallying in the final half.

The triumph gives the Bulletes a 6-2 record, excluding last week's tournament games.

A 4-0 victory was gained by the Bulletes Jayvees. Barbara Crouse landed goals in the first and second halves, Jean Brown one in the first half and Ann Stetser one in the last half.

During the season the Jayvees were unbeaten, a tie being the only blemish on the record.

Six members of the varsity will go to Buffalo N. Y., this weekend to take part in the Mid-East tournament. They are Eleanor Jones, Alice Davis, Janice Gibson, Kathleen Naus, Judy Schaub and Arlene Van Arsdale.

COMMISSIONERS

what to do about the old wooden bridges.

They were agreed that "modern traffic is getting to be just too heavy for our wooden bridges."

Commissioner Karl J. Smith held: "You can't keep the heavy trucks off the country roads and the bridges just won't hold them."

Commissioner J. Blaine Bushey reported that repairs to the one end of one of the wooden bridges has been held up because the bridge itself won't bear the weight of trucks carrying the materials, and they must cross the bridge to get to the other end for the repairs.

May Keep Only Few

While not expecting to take immediate action on the matter, the commissioners were considering the possibility of viewing the bridges to determine the most picturesque and historic, replacing all others, and seeking cooperation from the state to move the roads and put up other bridges for traffic at the location of the bridges that would be permitted to remain as historic monuments.

According to the commissioners, thinking this morning the roads now passing through the bridges allowed to remain could be re-routed nearby and bridges capable of bearing the weight put up. Then the abandoned section of road leading to the bridges would be blocked off so that only pedestrians could use the structures.

Smith said "the bridges that way would last for centuries and all they would need would be painting and occasional minor repairs."

And people could visit them as a museum piece."

NEIGHBORS HELP RE-BUILD BARN

In a good neighbor policy move, 30 area volunteers are aiding a nine-man Lebanon County construction crew in erecting a new two-story bank barn on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Batterman, New Oxford R. 1, just south of Cross Keys.

The crew of C. F. Shirk, Myers-town contractor, and volunteers, mostly neighbors, men from the New Oxford and Abbottstown areas, started work on the Quonset-type barn Monday morning. The concrete-block foundation was laid about six weeks ago.

The new structure, expected to be completed in one or two weeks, depending on weather conditions, will replace the barn destroyed by fire at the same site last Aug. 19. The fire was touched off when lightning struck the barn. Firemen from five Adams County communities responded and were credited with preventing flames from spreading to nearby buildings.

Flames destroyed grain stored in the barn and also damaged several pieces of farm machinery. Batterman, who was near the barn at the time of the fire, led his livestock to safety.

Mrs. Batterman, assisted by about seven women friends of the family, prepare and serve meals for the men who are raising the barn.

DARK HORSES ON GRIDIRON STEAL 1954 SPOTLIGHT

By BOB HOOBING
The Associated Press

Football players like Army right halfback Tommy Bell, who didn't figure to gain many headlines this fall, are having a lot to say about the outcome of the 1954 college football season.

Bell's case is typical. Last year Tom was a workhorse runner with drive and spirit. But he's a different boy now with new-found speed and an ability to follow blockers.

It was Bell who started once-beaten Army to its 48-7 conquest of previously undefeated Yale last week with a 64-yard scoring sprint on the Cadets' first play from scrimmage. He wound up with three TDs.

Better Than Paul

In the Duke game, the Blue Devils were pounding at the Army goal trailing 21-14 when Bell raced 80 yards before he was caught on the Duke 13. And Bell knocked down a pass in his end zone as the final gun sounded to save Army's 21-20 squeaker over Virginia.

Little Primo Villanueva, tailback ringmaster of the nation's No. 1 team at UCLA, was lost behind All-America Paul Cameron in '53. Now they say he's a faster runner and better passer than Paul.

Minnesota's having a better season with Bob McNamara firing the Gophers' new split-T than under the single wing magic of All-America Paul Giel. McNamara, an end and safetyman in platoon days, has been impressive all year at right half and tailback.

Other Stellar Names

Howard (Hopalong) Cassidy and Bobby Watkins help make Ohio State's backfield one of the most formidable in the country but quarterback Dave Leggett gets a major share of the credit. Leggett, moved from fullback to Johnny Borton's understudy last year, has the job now and is an important cog in the Buckeye machine with his passing, running and defense.

Arkansas' undefeated Razorbacks are the surprise team of the nation, thanks especially to guard Bud Brooks and fullback Henry Moore. Brooks, scarcely mentioned in pre-season hoopla, is getting more praise now than Baylor's touted tackle James Ray Smith and the Texas tackles, Herb Gray and Buck Lunsford. Brooks, in fact is The Associated Press' latest lineman of the week after his performance against Rice.

Homes In 1963 Will Use More Current

UTAH'S GLICK IS "BACK OF WEEK" ON AP'S LIST

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It isn't unusual to praise a football player as a "one-man team," but quarterback Gary Glick of Colorado A&M came about as close as possible to earning that designation against Utah last Saturday.

As a result he was chosen over strong competition today as Associated Press Back of the Week.

Glick, rated the top all-purpose back in the Rocky Mountain area, played almost the entire game with a painful right hand, which was stepped on early in the contest.

As a result, his passing was a little off, but otherwise he wasn't hampered as far as Utah could notice.

Here's What He Did

Here's what the 193-pound junior did as the Aggies upset Utah, the defending Skyline Conference champion 14-13:

Scored all his team's points, making a final 11-yard run for the second touchdown with a quick cutback after being hemmed in.

Kicked the winning point with 55 seconds left to play.

Smashed through the Utah line to block Lou Mele's extra-point kick after the second Utah touchdown—the point that made the difference in the game.

Passed for 63 yards in 15 attempts; ran for 46 yards in 13 rushes and led all the defensive players with 15 tackles.

Intercepted a Utah desperation pass on his own 15-yard line as the final gun sounded.

A'S TO KEEP 3 MINOR TEAMS

NEW YORK (AP) — The new Kansas City franchise in the American League will keep the three minor league clubs, including Lancaster, Pa., owned by the Philadelphia Athletics.

Arnold Johnson, whose purchase of the A's was approved by the American League on Monday, said yesterday that the club would be kept as a nucleus for an expanded farm system. Definite plans on the system, he said, would be left to a yet unnamed general manager.

Lancaster is in the Class B Piedmont League.

The other clubs are Ottawa of the International League and Savannah, Ga., of the Class A South Atlantic League.

The Ottawa franchise may be shifted to some other city after Johnson meets with officials of the Triple-A league. The Philadelphia A's had previously given up on Ottawa as a site for the franchise.

JOE OUTSTRIPS SELF IN HIS DEFENSE SPEECH

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—The speech which Sen. McCarthy prepared for the Senate today—in his own defense against censure—goes far beyond anything he has ever said or claimed before.

This speech, which he released late yesterday, is a basic restatement of his attitude and tactics toward criticism of himself over the past four years. History may remember it as an extraordinary document.

The speech goes so far in its implications it is difficult to believe McCarthy can surpass it; he holds himself and those who go along with him as the country's chief defenders against communism and links the fate of the nation to his own fate.

He's Persecuted

Without using the word "martry," he clearly suggests he is a man persecuted.

Senate debate begins today on recommendations of a special committee created to consider charges of misconduct against McCarthy. This committee of three Democrats and three Republicans was headed by Sen. Watkins (R-Utah).

This is how McCarthy reasoned in his speech:

He brushed aside as inconsequential the Watkins' committee charges, the same attitude he has taken toward all previous charges. "Petty," he called them.

A Red Victory

Censuring him would be a victory for the Communists who want to destroy him, he said. He described himself as "hard" on communism and those opposing him as "soft" on communism. Who are they? In this group, which he

U.S. GENERAL SCORES REDS

TOKYO (AP)—Still simmering, Gen. John E. Hull again Tuesday denounced the Russians for shooting down a U.S. RB29 photo plane Sunday with the loss of one crewman.

"A more flagrant incident would hardly be possible," he told correspondents.

Choosing his words carefully, he said: "The plane was on a routine mapping mission over eastern Hokkaido, flying back and forth in carrying out that mission. 'The plane was fired on without warning. The pilot did not return the fire."

"Not by the wildest stretch of the imagination could the plane be considered over Russian-held territory."

Ten crewmen safely bailed out of the flaming RB29, a converted bomber. The 11th man was killed.

called "ruthless," he included radio commentators, educators, writers, a majority of the press.

(Earlier this week he had said the attacks on him had "emanated" from the White House.)

Communist influence in shaping American thinking is enormous, he said, and now communism has extended "its tentacles to . . . the United States Senate." He declared the Watkins committee was playing the Communists' game in voting against him.

He didn't say the committee had knowingly played the Communist game, but that it was a "victim" of the Communist campaign.

But if the members of the Senate are too stupid to know what the Communists are up to, and protect the country from them, who in the United States can be depended upon to save the nation?

By direct implication McCarthy held himself up as one whose fate is linked to that of the nation in the anti-Communist fight. He said: "Rather Be Frank"

"It is not easy for a man to assert that he is the symbol of resistance to Communist subversion—that the nation's fate is in some respect tied to his own . . . but I take it you would rather I be frank than coy."

Ford's longer, lower body style and wrap-around windshield, available on all models, is shown above in the Fairlane four-door sedan. A powerful Y-block V-8 engine of 272 cubic inch displacement and a 7.6 to 1 compression ratio.

Improved Engine
An improved 6 cylinder I-block engine of 223 cubic inch displacement and a 7.5 to 1 compression ratio.

Dual exhausts, which provide extra power, are standard on all Fairlane V-8 and station wagon models.

Ford's new high compression engine available only with Fordomatic transmission in the Fairlane series, has a four-barrel carburetor with automatic choke and special intake manifold; special vacuum controlled distributor; high compression cylinder heads and high capacity radiator. Ford's popular V-8 and 6 cylinder engines are available with any of the 16 Ford models for 1955.

L. D. Crusoe, vice president of Ford Motor Company and general manager of Ford Division, announced that Ford is introducing a new integrated air conditioning and heating system with its 1955 models. This system will be dealer installed.

"Ford's new cars," Mr. Crusoe said, "are notable for new 'Trigger-Torque' power which gives greatly increased responsiveness in driving range and better maneuverability and flexibility in traffic. A 44 foot-pound increase in torque in the V-8 engine provides faster starts at lower speeds and also extra power for safer passing at higher speeds. This is part of a balanced combination of horsepower, torque, transmission and rear axle ratio which also gives greater gasoline economy."

varsity basketball at Biglerville. For three years Joyce became more and more proficient in intramural basketball, but last year when she tried out for the varsity she found that the more rugged competition was just a little bit more than a girl with a windpipe like hers could take.

Joyce says she's a year behind in her school work anyway. That was because of mumps, measles and whooping cough all in one year while she was in grade school.

In Hospital's First Year
Joyce's trials with her throat were not completely solved by the early incision. A small tube was inserted, and she began a series of trips back and forth between the University of Pennsylvania Hospital at Philadelphia and the Warner Hospital here. She was a year old before she was returned to her home for a brief stay before returning for more medical attention.

Her mother, who manages a household and six youngsters and looks more like a sister of Joyce than her mother, tells how they could tell improvement in Joyce as an infant.

Sounds are made by the air coming up through her windpipe and passing over the vocal cords. Joyce, as an infant, with the windpipe closed, would, like any baby, cry. But there was no sound with the infant going through only the motions of crying.

Mumps Caused Worry
At the university hospital efforts were made to open the windpipe by putting in dilators. Mrs. Sheaffer recalls that the entire family rejoiced when they could hear Joyce weeping for the first time—that meant the dilators were working and some air was coming through the windpipe.

In time the child could speak and the opening into the windpipe, which permitted her to get a full breath, was hidden away by neck-erchiefs. There were more trips to hospitals and improvement was shown. The trips to the hospitals became less frequent, and Joyce continued to grow and the opening was not too great a bother to her.

Then came the day when she got the mumps. It had been necessary for her mother to remove the tube from her throat daily. When Joyce came down with the mumps the

MAKE PROGRESS ON SEWER WORK

Work is progressing on schedule on the Taneytown Sanitary Sewer project, Paul O'Shea, resident engineer, announced today, even though work had been slowed down due to inclement weather and the rocky condition of the excavated areas.

Men are working on Frederick St., Baltimore St. and Outfall B. Work has also begun on the pumping station at the treatment plant on the Sauble property.

At the regular meeting of the city council recently, a payment of $7,295.33, the fourth estimate of the project, was made to W. F. Wilson and Sons, Inc., Baltimore, for work done on Part A of the sewer contract. Another payment of $10,397.70 was made to the same firm for work done on Part B of the sewer project.

Tube could not be re-inserted because of the swollen condition of the neck. Then followed several weeks of intense worry, but all worked out well in the end.

Finally as she grew older and into high school age, the tube was removed entirely and the opening itself served as the tube for breathing.

Wants To Be Missionary
Joyce, interested in religion, became a teacher on the third grade in Sunday School at Centenary EUB church at Biglerville last year.

There were still times of difficulties, caused an even more difficult condition for Joyce, as a result of the hole in her throat.

There were frequent x-rays in addition to guard against tuberculosis, and frequent tests to guard against other diseases. The human body is set up with certain safeguards to prevent the air breathed through the nose from carrying germs into the body. But for Joyce there was no such protection—the opening from her throat directly into the windpipe exposed her more directly to contagion.

The young girl already has a plan for her life. She wishes, after high school, to attend the LIFE Bible Institute and become a missionary.

There had been hopes and prayers that eventually the opening in the throat could be closed and her breathing return to normal.

Final Operation
Finally this summer the physicians gave the word. Late last month she returned to the University of Pennsylvania Hospital. Physicians in a half-hour operation, using only a local anesthetic, completed 15 years of work. The windpipe had been opened to normal size over the period of years and many treatments. Finally the early opening could be closed—and nine stitches did it.

Now Joyce has a scar on her throat that will gradually disappear. She has to go back later this month for examination by the Philadelphia physicians—but she is breathing normally.

But she confesses that she has to get used to normal breathing. It seems now to take her a long time to get a full breath, compared to the days when she breathed directly through the throat. But, she says, the change is worth it. For now she can go on to a normal happy life, unencumbered by the old handicap.

Carroll County Community Chest Drive Ends Thursday With "Red Feather Dance"

On Thursday the First Carroll County Community Chest Drive will come to an end. The drive, which began September 27, has reached 58 percent of the goal of $37,000. It was announced by Carroll County committee chairman this week. All of the money collected in this campaign will be used in the county by these member organizations: Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Children's Aid Society, Cancer Fund, Humane Society, Heart Fund and Salvation Army.

A meeting was held Friday night at Legion Square, Westminster, with Stanley H. Tevis, president of the Community Chest, presiding. Invocation was offered by the Rev. Harold Hodgson, pastor of the Westminster Methodist Church. Committee reports were called for by the chairman of the drive, Scott S. Blair.

The only committee which has exceeded its goal is the men's organizations, C. Rodgers Hall, chairman. The industrial committee, John R. Eckard, chairman, reported that his committee has collected $7,813.

Dance On Thursday
Mrs. Alvah Finch, chairman of the Westminster house-to-house solicitors, received special recognition at the meeting. Westminster has been divided into two sections for soliciting by 66 solicitors and seven captains. Fifty-six of these solicitors have reported and a total of $2,602.74 has been turned over to the Chest. The east end of town contributed $1,019.17 and the west end has donated $1,583.57.

On Thursday evening, Veterans' Day, a Red Feather drive dance will close the current campaign. The dance will be held at the Westminster Riding Club beginning at 9 o'clock and will feature a 17-piece orchestra which has donated its services.

The dance committee consists of Henry Himler, Stover Rohrer, Henry Harbaugh, W. Harold Myers and David Babylon. Reservations are not necessary and the dance will be informal.

All solicitors and committee chairmen are requested to send the funds which have been collected to the Community Chest Headquarters, former First National Bank Building, before Thursday.

Democratic Floor Leader In 1953 Declares State Government "Too Complex"

HARRISBURG (AP)—Sen. John H. Dent, Democratic floor leader in the 1953 Senate, said Tuesday that "sooner or later" Pennsylvania's state government must be reorganized.

"Our government machinery has become too big, too complex," he told a newsman. "There are many functions that could be combined to streamline the government and eliminate over-lapping."

Dent said reorganization could come either through revision of the state constitution or through a study by a bi-partisan committee which would submit recommendations for overhauling the government.

"Whichever method could be accomplished faster would be best," said Dent.

Gov.-elect George M. Leader placed a complete reorganization of the multiple state government departments as one of the initial objectives of his incoming administration, starting in January.

Wants Reorganization

"I will ask the legislature" he said in a campaign speech, "to pass an act providing for the reorganization of the state departments, department by department, beginning with the Revenue Department. We can then make a forthright last-ditch effort to run this state to give you (the voters) a dollar's worth of service for every dollar spent."

Dent, meanwhile, awaited final results of a state senatorial battle in the 36th District which would decide party supremacy in the 1955 Senate.

Although the victory in the Somerset-Bedford-Pulton district at first was given to Joseph H. Cascio, Democrat, a recount put J. Irving Whalley, Republican, ahead by 54 votes. The soldier vote still must be counted, however.

Has One GOP Vote

Should Cascio win, Democrats would have organization control of the Senate based on a 25-25 party split, including the vote of Sen. John Carl Miller, Beaver County Republican, who has declared for the Democrats. In such a situation, Lt. Gov.-elect Roy E. Furman, presiding officer of the Senate, may break the tie on organization and procedure questions but cannot vote on final passage of legislation.

Republicans would have a 26-24 edge, however, should Whalley officially be declared the winner and successor to former Sen. Fred P. Hare Jr.

With Democrats in control, that party would have the choice of keeping veteran Dent in his post of floor leader or electing him Senate president pro tempore.

"There is no question but that sooner or later we must overhaul the state government," Dent said.

On the question of constitutional revision, however, voters rejected a plan in 1953 to call a convention to write a new version of the state's basic law. The present constitution, termed "outmoded" by numerous jurists and legal experts, was written in 1873.

Reject Recommendations

The investigating committee method of assessing the value of state departments and recommending reorganization was tried

METROPOLITAN PRESENTS NEW OPERA OPENING

By HENRIETTA LEITH

NEW YORK (AP)—The Metropolitan Opera put on a new kind of opening night Monday night, and became a popular success not only in the old opera house but across the country.

The newness of the opening night program was in the fact that it was not an opera at all, but a series of the most popular scenes from four of the most popular operas.

New also was the expanded audience—besides the usual furred, jeweled and white-tied capacity crowd attending the performance in the opera house, audiences in more than 30 theaters in 25 other cities saw and heard it on closed-circuit television.

Lounge Is Quiet

The Met audience liked the show so much that Sherry's Lounge in the opera house, which in the past has done a heavy business even while the opera was on, was a fairly quiet place except at intermissions.

An opera spokesman wondered if it meant that the opening nights were becoming opera lovers.

But Associated Press Arts Editor W. G. Rogers thought the performance's appeal was more to "anybody who didn't like opera so much as he liked to relax."

Rogers also described it as "TV show first, opera only second," and "a kind of vaudeville, all these by Gov. John S. Fine. Recommendations of his Chesterman committee were rejected almost entirely by the 1953 Legislature.

Although he too was among those who turned down most of the Chesterman program, Dent held to his position that the state government must be overhauled.

The Democratic leader announced also he will work for passage in the 1955 General Assembly of a proposed constitutional amendment to introduce annual instead of biennial legislative sessions.

This measure was approved in 1953, but must go through the legislative mill twice and then be approved by the voters.

"The business of the commonwealth has become too complex for us to be able to forecast monetary needs on a biennial basis," Dent said.

Troopers Arrest 21 In Union Flareup

MARLINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—State police arrested three men at one point, 18 at another Monday in trouble stemming from a United Mine Workers organizing battle in the east-central West Virginia coal fields.

The arrests followed by only a few hours new outbursts of violence in the 10-week-old dispute—the dynamiting of a highway bridge and a mine tippie at widely-separated points. The dynamitings were the fourth and fifth since the trouble began.

UMW officials have disclaimed any knowledge of, or connection with, the incidents.

BETTY HUTTON LEAVES STAGE

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Betty Hutton bade a tearful farewell to show business Monday night. Her night club audience wept too.

"This is my last show and I'm retiring from show business," the energetic blonde star said at the close of her four-week engagement at the Desert Inn. "This is my farewell."

The capacity crowd of about 560 was on its feet with shouts of "No! No!" An observer of the scene reported:

"It was one of the most emotional things I ever witnessed. I never saw so many women weeping. Waitresses cried. Everybody cried and had a wonderful time. The orchestra struck 'Auld Lang Syne' and the audience sang."

Betty cried. Allard Roen, an executive of the hotel, presented her with a French crystal centerpiece for a dining set. Maitre d'hotel Pancho Allati gave her three dozen roses. Miss Hutton, overcome, fled to her dressing room.

May Wed Again

Her mother, Mrs. Mabel Hutton, awaited her there. Alan Livingston, Hollywood recording company executive reported in gossip to be her intended third husband, came backstage from his ringside table.

Betty said she'll rest at the Las Vegas apartment of her sister Marion about 10 days before returning to Hollywood.

If Betty makes her retirement stick—and some observers think show biz is too much in her blood for that—it will end a dynamic career. Born 33 years ago in Battle Creek, Mich., she has been a band singer, vaudevillian, Broadway show comedienne and star of more than a dozen movies.

and no strip."

The performance brought more stars and a bigger cast to the opening night stage than almost any opener in the Met's history.

Highlevel Performances

Those whose vocal performances Rogers described as consistently highlevel included: Leonard Warren in the prologue of Leoncavallo's "Pagliacci"; Victoria de los Angeles and Richard Tucker in Act 1 of Puccini's "La Boheme"; Roberta Peters, her ex-husband Robert Merrill and Jerome Hines in the second act of Rossini's "The Barber of Seville"; and Zinka Milanov, Blanche Thebom and Mario del Monaco in Act 2 of Verdi's "Aida."

Equally starry was the audience, which included Margaret Truman, actresses Judith Anderson and Cornelia Otis Skinner, United Nations Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld, Marian Anderson, soon to become the first Negro to sing at the Met, and scores of other celebrated people of the music and social worlds.

The first "Quonset huts" in America were erected by Pilgrims in Massachusetts who wove straw reeds over an arched framework of poles.

ODD FELLOWS WILL SPREAD TO FOREIGN LANDS

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—The Independent Order of Odd Fellows is planning to spread its organization to a score of foreign lands within the next few years, a national officer said here Monday night.

Roy Tricker of Sterling, Kan., national commanding general of the Patriarchs—highest order of Odd Fellows—was the principal speaker at the annual dinner of the Pennsylvania Department, Council of Patriarchs Militant (IOOF), and the Ladies Auxiliary of the Patriarchs.

Tricker delivered a report from the Sovereign Grand Lodge meeting held in September at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Tricker said IOOF fellowship is spreading particularly in Cuba, where there are now many members of the organization, including a number of the Roman Catholic faith.

Ray Himmelberger, Myerstown, toastmaster, introduced these special guests: Fred Korman, Fallen Timber, grand master, Grand Lodge IOOF; Charles N. Pfeil, Tarentum, grand patriarch, Grand Encampment; Mrs. Sarah Koller, Philadelphia, president, Rebekah Assembly of Pennsylvania; Mrs. Daisy Henry, Pottdown, president, Department Assn. LAFM; R. K. Patterson, Harrisburg, department commander, Patriarchs Militant, IOOF.

The following officers, elected yesterday, were to be installed by Ladies Auxiliary of the Patriarchs Tuesday.

President, Mrs. Lillian Stephens, Philadelphia; vice president, Mrs. Ethelyn Henry, Meadville; secretary, Mrs. Anna Miller, Harrisburg; treasurer, Mrs. Florence Hallem, Pittsburgh. Mrs. Anna Miller, Harrisburg, is installing officer.

New officers of the encampment to be installed at a public ceremony Thursday morning are: Grand patriarch, Evan W. Reese of Conyngham; grand high priest, Ora B. Wilkens, Erie; grand senior warden, Paul Kleindorf of York; grand junior warden, A. Roy Mauk, Beaver; grand scribe, Walter W. Leibfried, Philadelphia; grand treasurer, A. E. S. Montgomery, Scranton; grand representatives to sovereign Grand Lodge, Harry C. Stephens, Philadelphia; and R. K. Patterson, Harrisburg.

FIVE KILLED BY TYPHOON RUBY

MANILA (AP)—Typhoon Ruby roared across the South China Sea toward the Red Chinese mainland Tuesday, leaving five known dead in the Philippines, tens of thousands homeless and untold millions of dollars in damage.

The toll was far from complete. Ruby's howling winds ripped down communications lines and left much of central and northern Luzon, the main Philippine island, out of touch with the rest of the world.

The late-season storm smashed across Luzon Monday with 120-mile-an-hour winds. Vast tracts of farmland were flooded, flimsy dwellings were swept ruthlessly aside, telephone poles broke like matchsticks and highways were cut in countless places.

FIND ALLIED DEAD

SEOUL (AP)—The Communists told the U.N. Command Tuesday they had recently located bodies of 23 Allied war dead in the demilitarized zone. A meeting of the joint observation team No. 2 will be held today to discuss the delivery of the bodies, an Allied spokesman said.

The Communists said the bodies were found along the military demarcation line. They were unidentified as to nationality.

MOUNTBATTEN LEAVES

VALLETTA, Malta (AP)—NATO's outgoing commander in chief in the Mediterranean, Adm. Earl Mountbatten, held his farewell conference Tuesday with the sea commanders in his area.

He will leave soon for London to take up his new duties as Britain's first sea lord.

ADMITS PLOT TO KILL NASSER

CAIRO, Egypt, (AP)—Mahmoud Abdel Latif, a 32-year-old tinsmith, pleaded guilty Tuesday to charges of attempting to assassinate Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser. He was arraigned before the three-man military "peoples' court."

Abdel Latif also is charged with conspiring with "others" to overthrow Egypt's military government by violence. The tribunal, headed by Vice Premier Gamal Salem, adjourned until Thursday to pick a lawyer for the defense.

The hearing was the first of a series of scheduled trials against leading members of the fanatic Moslem Brotherhood who were rounded up after the Oct. 26 attempt on Nasser's life.

Abdel Latif was seized as he fired eight shots at Nasser while the Premier was speaking in Alexandria. He was identified as a member of the brotherhood, which has bitterly attacked the Nasser regime because it agreed to concessions to Britain in the agreement for withdrawal of British troops from the Suez Canal zone.

Government officials say more than 600 brotherhood members are now in prison with still others expected to be arrested soon.

Harness horses are given, usually, six warm-up miles before they parade to the post.

BENDERSVILLE DEMOCRAT, 89, IN PARADE HERE

One of the country's oldest traveling salesmen—as well as one of the oldest Democrats in the county—was a participant in the Bendersville-Gardners entry in Monday night's Salt River parade in Gettysburg.

Determined to have one of the best entries in the parade, the Democrats from Bendersville and Gardner joined forces in a three-float display that impressed spectators as one of the best units in the procession celebrating the election of a Democratic governor.

A. G. Hertzog, Bendersville, was one of the two men in the portion of the float representing Adams County's oldest Democrats. Mr. Hertzog, aged 89, still serves as a traveling salesman for a paint supplier, in addition to being active in Democratic politics in the upper end of the county.

Pitzer-Orner Theme
Originally scheduled to ride with Mr. Hertzog as "oldest Democrats" was Samuel Schultz, Bendersville, Biglerville's new elementary school is rapidly reaching completion, with windows in, the roof on, and the heating system operating in the structure to the north of the present Biglerville High School buildings. The south side and front of the building, which is to be completed in December, are shown in a photo taken from the football field at Biglerville. (Gettysburg Times) aged 84. But illness at the last minute prevented his participation and so a "youngster," William Sheely, aged 75, of Bendersville, took his place.

H. Earl Pitzer, Aspers, prominent county Republican and state director of highway safety, was depicted in the parade by his Democratic neighbors in the upper community as was Mrs. Ruth Orner, Republican vice chairman.

Ray Zeigler, Gardner, who represented Mr. Pitzer and the lady representing Mrs. Orner rode in a 1910 auto and were dressed in 1910 fashion. The car was carried on a "lowboy" owned by L. W. Hays, Biglerville R. D., and pulled by a tractor owned by Harry Kuhn, Gardner. On the 1910 vehicle was a sign, "Pennsylvania Government Is As Antiquated As This Car." Another sign, pertaining to Mr. Pitzer and Mrs. Orner read: "Out of Town." A new Cadillac owned by Harry Kuhn followed the 1910 vehicle with the sign, "The New Government Will Be As Modern as This Car." Then followed the vehicle with the oldest Democrats.

Property Transfers

The following property transfers have been filed with the office of the register and recorder:
Frank W. Higinbotham and wife, Frederick, sold to Robert L. Bolen and wife, Oxford Twp., for $13,000.

Arendtsville's new elementary school is "about a week behind" the construction on the Biglerville school, but it also is scheduled for completion in December. The new building is located in a new development in the northeastern portion of the community, with a portion of an orchard removed to build the huge new structure. (Gettysburg Times)

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

WILL RESUME PSYCHIATRIST STORY TODAY IN MURDER TRIAL

By RALEIGH H. ALLSBROOK
CLEVELAND (AP) — The tired mayor of suburban Bay Village goes back on the stand today to finish his story about a psychiatrist who offered his services in the Sheppard murder case.

The trial of Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, 31-year-old osteopath, adjourned on a note of mystery during testimony yesterday by Mayor J. Spencer Houk.

As the afternoon went toward a close, Mayor Houk began to tell of Dr. Sheppard and his brother, Dr. Stephen Sheppard, coming to his City Hall offices and relating that a psychiatrist had volunteered his services in the case.

Flurry Of Excitement
Then Defense Counsel William J. Corrigan suddenly hurried over to confer with Common Pleas Judge Edward Blythin. Asst. County Prosecutor John J. Mahon, directing the state's case, followed him.

A few moments later, Judge Blythin adjourned the session and a little flurry of excitement developed.

Had Murder Theory
Who was the psychiatrist? How did he figure in the case? Why did the judge suddenly adjourn the session?

No one was talking for the record, but those in a position to know indicated the psychiatrist had approached the Sheppards with a murder theory.

A prosecution source said authorities took no stock of the theory. The psychiatrist's name was not mentioned.

Dr. Sheppard is accused of killing his wife Marilyn 31, in the bedroom of their Bay Village home last July 4. He insists that a bushy-haired intruder committed the crime.

Was Called First
Mayor Houk and his wife were the first persons summoned to Dr. Sheppard's home after the murder.

A retail meat dealer, Houk recently was released from a hospital following treatment for a stomach ailment. The illness developed from strain brought about by the mayor's official position in the case.

Houk went over, step by step, the early morning call from Dr. Sheppard and the hurried drive to the Sheppard home.

He said Dr. Richard Sheppard bent over his brother and said: "Did you have anything to do with it?"

The defendant replied "Hell, no," Houk said.

Houk, who described himself as a close friend of Dr. Sheppard, said the osteopath told him of hearing his wife screaming, running upstairs, being "lobbered" and then coming to on the beach outside their home.

Dr. Sheppard was "slumped"

in a reclining chair when he entered the house, Houk said.

Complained Of Pain
"I tried to give him some whisky, but he shook his head and refused and said 'I've got to think,'" Houk testified.

The mayor said Dr. Sheppard later got up out of the chair unassisted and went into the kitchen, complaining of a severe pain over the back of his neck. Houk said he saw only an injury over an eye, but the osteopath said he thought his neck was broken.

Under questioning by Mahon, Houk said Dr. Sheppard moved without difficulty during the walk to the kitchen and back.

Because of his friendship for Dr. Sum, Houk temporarily stepped down from his office last summer and the murder warrant against the defendant was issued by Acting Mayor Gershom M. M. Barber.

CUNARD CREW WANTS CAPTAIN
SOUTHAMPTON, England (AP)—A new hurricane shown on no weather charts buffeted the Cunard Steamship Co. Tuesday over the question of who's going to pilot Queen Mother Elizabeth home from her visit to the United States.

Cunard blew up the storm on Monday by announcing that Capt. Ivan Thompson, commodore of its fleet, would take charge of the liner Queen Mary for the trip next week.

But crew members of the 81,273-ton liner threatened to go on strike unless their regular captain, Donald Sorrell, was permitted to do the honors for the royal voyage.

The company said today it intended "absolutely no slur" on Sorrell when it announced the change. It is customary for the line's senior captain to man the bridge on royal trips.

Crew members told newsmen there will be a meeting to "consider future action" if Cunard does not accede to their demands by 1 p.m. today — when the crew is supposed to muster for the liner's scheduled departure Thursday. The Queen Mother is scheduled to board the ship in New York Nov. 17 and sail for home the next day.

Ezzard Charles, heavyweight champion, won 42 amateur fights and lost none. He then decided to turn pro.

MUST VACATE!
After being in business at Carlisle and Railroad Streets in Gettysburg for the past eight years, I must vacate my used car lot for the erection of a new, modern, stainless steel diner, in the next few weeks. According to all indications, our new lot on Railroad Street will not be ready to occupy by the deadline date. Therefore, we are cutting prices on every car... regardless of cost... in order to clear the lot in time. We are happy to pass on to you, our customers, who made our business a success, these great savings! We appreciate your past patronage, and hope to be able to serve you even better when our new location on Railroad Street is ready.
